MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ZBIGNIEW BRZEZINSKI 25

SUBJECT: Your Question About the Letter from Videla to You

The letter from President Videla of Argentina to you was dated October 11, 1977, but it was received by Bob Pastor at approximately 5:00 p.m. on October 18, 1977. Videla had asked the Embassy to deliver the letter directly to the National Security Council for delivery to you, but we informed the State Department immediately of its contents.

The letter referred to the case of the Deutsch family, which you raised in your discussion with President Videla. In the letter, Videla made several points:

- First, that Daniel Deutsch and his family had fled Argentina illegally, and that they were active members of the Communist Revolutionary Party. (According to our files, Daniel Deutsch and his wife left Argentina legally and are currently in the U.S.)
- That Daniel Deutsch's sister, Liliana, is also a member of the organization, and is in jail in Argentina.
- That their father, Alejandro Deutsch, covered up for both of his children.
- That for these reasons Alejandro and Liliana Deutsch are being held.
- And that the other three members of their family have been released.

Videla closed the letter by reaffirming the friendship between the Argentine and American people and saying that he would like to continue to have direct communication with you. We are incorporating a response to this letter within the context of a longer letter from you to President Videla which we are drafting referring to other important points in your conversation with him.

Pursuant to our friendly agreement, made during our meeting in Washington, that we would maintain direct and informal channels of communication, I am pleased to send you this letter regarding one of the subjects which we discussed at our meeting. I refer to the case of the Deutsch family.

As a result of investigations conducted by the competent organizations, it has been established that:

Mr. Daniel Deutsch and his wife, who departed our country illegally, are active members of the Partido Comunista Revolucionario /Revolutionary Communist Party/. Their function in that illegal organization was to perform information and intelligence duties connected with the activity of terrorist groups operating in Argentina.

His sister Lilliana belongs to the same subversive organization, working as an activist in the area of student affairs.

Mr. Alejandro Deutsch, father of the aforementioned, concealed the illegal activities of his children.

For the reasons stated above both Alejandro and Lilliana Deutsch are under arrest and will be tried at an early date by the competent military courts.

Mrs. Alejandro Deutsch and her daughters, Elsa and Susana Silvia, have been released because it was established that they had no knowledge of or connection with the illegal activities of the rest of the family.

I wish to assure Your Excellency of my deep and friendly interest in your administration and to reaffirm, once again, the friendship of the Argentine people for the people of the United States of America.

With warmest regards,

Dear Mr. President:

I was very pleased to receive your letter informing me that Argentina would ratify the Treaty of Tlatelolco. The coming into force of the Treaty will represent a very significant step toward the establishment of a more secure world order. I very much hope that Argentina will be able formally to ratify the Treaty and bring it into effect soon. This will give important impetus to our common efforts to reduce the dangers of further proliferation of nuclear weapons and to secure a nuclear free zone in Latin America.

I share your concern over the current events in Africa, and appreciate your desire to encourage the efforts of African nations to resist foreign intervention. I hope that your government will voice its concern on this issue, as I believe that the principle of non-intervention can only be sustained with firm international support.

I too am deeply preoccupied by the worldwide upsurge of terrorism and share your sorrow over the tragic death of Aldo Moro. I am heartened, however, by the measured manner in which the Italian Government has reacted to the terrorist threat. The legal protection of the rights of the individual is a proof of the basic strength of a democratic government.

I would like to express my appreciation for the consideration shown by you and the Argentine Government to Under Secretary Newsom during his recent trip to Argentina. I was very interested in his report of your conversation, and I will take a close interest in your government's progress in the human rights area, which is important to relations between our two countries.

Sincerely,
